

HARK THE CALL OF LIBERTY,

By George Thornton Edwards

FROM
KENNETH CLARK

Air: "Marching Through Georgia."
SONG LEADER

Hark the call of Liberty,
That comes from o'er the sea,
Hark the call of Freedom boys,
So dear to you and me,
Hark the call of Brothers all,
And friends across the sea,
While we go marching to Victory.

CHORUS

Hurrah, hurrah, we'll fight for Liberty,
And fight to win for world Democracy,
So we'll sing the chorus
As we sail across the sea.
And as we go marching to Victory.

In freedom's name we're coming boys,
Some half a million strong,
Another half a million boys
Are coming right along,
So let us raise, as God we praise,
Our voices in song,
As we go marching to victory.

Then let us cheer Old Glory, boys,
The red and white and blue,
The colors that we love the best,
The colors always true,
The colors of America,
And France and England too,
As we go marching to Victory.

COPYRIGHT 1917, BY GEORGE THORNTON EDWARDS

Published by the Underwood Music Co.
465 Congress Street, Portland, Me.

Harvard College Library

Nov. 14, 1918.

Gift of

National Board for Historical Service
Washington.